

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—Washington—Paris

Make This a Book Christmas For the Children

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris

Good Fiction for Young Folks

The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, by Mark Twain, $1.75. The story is told by Huck himself. He is a poor white boy who escapes from his well-meaning friends, and in company with a runaway negro, Jim, floats down the Mississippi on a raft. The two meet with all manner of adventures, most of them hilariously funny, and the whole is thrown light upon a phase of life that has completely vanished.

The Story of the Champions of the Round Table, by Howard Frye, $2.00. Similar in scope, style and scheme of illustrations to his "Story of King Arthur and His Knights." It tells the story of the Champions of the Round of the most poetic and spirited way.

Swiss Family Robinson, by J. D. Wyss, $1.50. Illustrations from sketches made in the tropics by Louis Rhead.

The Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court, by Mark Twain, $1.75. The story is told in the first person and purports to be the singular adventures of a man born in Hartford as set down in his own manuscript. It has been called by Howells "one of the greatest romances ever imagined."

The Innocent Abroad, by Mark Twain, $2.00. This is a book of pleasant adventure, being an account of the excursion of the steamer "Quaker City" to Europe and the Holy Land. It was an actual early day Mediterranean trip, but the incidents aboard ship and in the various countries are frolicsome and extravagant.

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer, by Mark Twain, $1.75. Here is the celebrated putting-the-fence-around-the-fence story, told in his own language to my mind, has the boy, simply as a boy, been better realized than in any other book.

Deerslayer, by James F. Cooper, $1.25. Tale of warfare in New York between the white settlers and the crafty Iroquois. Portrayed Hawkeye, a famous frontier scout of literature.

Last of the Mohicans, by James F. Cooper, $1.25. "The last of the Mohicans" is the last of the tale, and every boy who reads of him will cherish his memory "forever and aye."

Pathfinder, by James F. Cooper, $1.25. Hawkeye reappears in the war of '56 in company with his Mohican friend. This volume, Francis Parkman says: "Remarkable even among its companions for the force and distinction of its pictures."

Pioneers, by James F. Cooper, $1.25. Story of pioneer life on the banks of Lake Huron.

Prarie, by James F. Cooper, $1.25. This book closes the career of Hawkeye, or Leatherstocking. Treasure Island, by Robert L. Stevenson, $1.25. With fourteen full-page illustrations in color by Milo Winter.

Out-of-Door Stories

Gray Lady and the Birds, by Mabel O. Wright, $0.50. Macmillan's Standard Library.

Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Books, $1.20 each. Whatever else the home library owner or lack of it, the sure it has the inexhaustible delight of Kipling's "Jungle Books." There are no books so rich in the magic and mystery and charm of the great open and its life.

Outdoor Handy Book, by Dan C. Beard, $1.50. Among other things tells how to make an umbrella canoe, and also how to kite and stilt, how to build the "get-there" sled and double runners, how to play tipcat, monkey peg, hockey and other games.

The American Boy's Handy Book, by Dan C. Beard, $1.50. Tells how to make and do all sorts of things: make kites, boats, fishing tackle, blowguns, puppets, and so on. It shows, magic lanterns, masquerade and theatrical costumes, paper fireworks.

Field and Forest Handy Book, by Dan C. Beard, $1.50. A book for the benefit of all who are living close to nature in field or forest; a book for men as well as boys.

The Boy with the U. S. Census, by Francis Holt-Wheeler, $1.20. Thrilling adventures of members of the U. S. Geological Survey, romantically woven into a stirring narrative that both pleases and instructs.

The Boy with the U. S. Indians, by Francis Holt-Wheeler, $1.20. With a typical bright American youth as a central figure, this tells a great deal about Indians.

The Guns of Bull Run, by Joseph A. Altshuler, $1.20. An exciting story of the Civil War, told in the first person, the tense days that preceded the battle of Fort Sumter.

Famous Scouts, by Charles H. L. Johnston, $1.20. To the reading of such books many a man can point with pride and pleasure as having fired him with zeal and higher aspirations.

Famous Cavalry Leaders, by Charles H. L. Johnston, $1.20. More of such books should be written, books that acquaint young readers with historical personages in a pleasant informal way.

Famous Indian Chiefs, by Charles H. L. Johnston, $1.20. Mr. Johnston has done faithful work in this volume, and it is a worthy addition to United States history.

Famous Frontiersmen and Heroes of the Border, by Charles H. L. Johnston, $1.20. The tales of stirring experiences of many pioneer heroes.

Boy Scout Books

Boy Scout Books, by Scout Master Bert Shaler, $25 copy. A new series of stories pertaining to the Boy Scout movement which will appeal to those in search of good, wholesome books at a moderate price.

Boy Scouts of the Signal Corps, by Scout Master of Pioneer Camp.

Boy Scouts of the Geological Survey, by Scout Master of the Life Saving Crew.

Boy Scouts on Picket Duty, by Scout Master of the Flying Squadron.

Boy Scouts and the Pine Penant, by Scout Master of the Naval Reserve.

Boy Scouts in the Saddle, by Scout Master of the City Improvement.

Boy Scouts in the Great Flood, by Scout Master of the Field Hospital.

Boy Scouts with the Red Cross, by Scout Master of the Fair Garden.

Boy Scouts as Forest Fire Fighters, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Wild West, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

Boy Scouts of the Forest Patrol, by Scout Master of the Forest Patrol.

School and College Stories For Girls

The Betty Wales Books, by Margaret Ward, $1.00 each. These books show Betty Wales as the typical American college girl; eager, warm-hearted, fun-loving, thoughtful and brave.

Betty Wales, Freshman, by Margaret Ward, $1.00.

Betty Wales, Junior, by Margaret Ward, $1.00.

Betty Wales, Senior, by Margaret Ward, $1.00.

Betty Wales and the Campus, by Margaret Ward, $1.00.

Alma at Madley Hall, by Louise M. Brewster, $1.25. The author is to be congratulated on having written such an appealing book for girls.

Alma's Sophomore Year, by Louise M. Brewster, $1.25. It cannot fail to appeal to the lover of good things in girl's books.

Alma's Junior Year, by Louise M. Brewster, $1.25. It is an ideal depiction of boarding school life and of girl characters.

Alma's Senior Year, by Louise M. Brewster, $1.25. Alma possesses all the lovely qualities that a girl should have, and she is a "summe cum laude senior."

A Texas Blue Bonnet, by Caroline E. Jacobs, $1.00. Blue Bonnet has the very finest kind of wholesome, honest, lively girlishness and cannot but make friends with every one who meets her.

Blue Bonnet's Ranch Party, by Caroline E. Jacobs and Edith E. Read, $1.00. A sequel to "A Texas Blue Bonnet," and a story that is both pretty and unadorned in its simplicity and as unlike the ordinary tales of Texas as anything to be imagined.

Blue Bonnet in Boston, by Caroline E. Jacobs and Edith E. Read, $1.00.

The Camp Fire Girls of Brightwood, by Amy E. Blanchard, $1.00. Show how the girls of Brightwood started their camp fire, what they did, and how they did it.

Beth's Old Home, by Marion Ames Taggart, $1.25. A companion volume to "Beth's Old Home," the story of a girl who spent her winter in New York and returns to her old Aunt Rebecca, and takes up her simple life again.

Nancy Lee's Lookout, by Margaret Ward, $1.25. "The Lookout" is a little summer house by the sea, and it is a game as well—the game of keeping a "lookout" for other people who are in need. Nancy finds that by his help a summer with a badly sprained ankle can be a very happy and useful vacation.

Books for Girls

The Mary Frances Sewing Book, by Jane F. Fryer, $1.50. Tells in a simple, easily understood way the "Thimble People" teach Mary Frances to sew. Includes a complete list of sewing machines, and 300 colored illustrations.

The Mary Frances Cook Book, by Jane F. Fryer, $1.50. Combines the principles of cooking with the most fascinating sort of story, and gives directions in the simplest, plainest words.

The Mary Frances Housekeeper, by Jane F. Fryer, $1.50. How Mary Frances keeps her house, and how she keeps it. Contains 36 sheets of paper dolls and the new patented kind of cut-out furniture.

Beth Anne Herself, by Pemberton Gaither, $1.00. Beth Anne is a little girl with a faculty for making things, and a faculty for making things out of things.

A Little Maid of Narragansett, by Dorothy Dalrymple, $1.00. The story of two little girls in Rhode Island during the Revolutionary times, and how they were of use to the American Army.

Dorothy Dalrymple at Greenville, by Dorothy Dalrymple, $1.00. Dorothy Dalrymple is a little girl who has put together some of the best of her own stories, and they are all of them very good.

Three Hundred Things a Bright Girl Can Do, by Lillie E. Kelley, $1.75. The most exhaustive popular treatise of this kind ever published. Unexcelled for variety, amusement, bright and original style, happy atmosphere, and practical usefulness.

The Faith Palmer Series, by Lillie E. Kelley, $1.00 each. A Cal. formia girl under the care of her old aunt. After a year at a fashionable boarding school she takes domestic science courses in New York, and then spends a diverting winter in Washington.

Faith Palmer at the Oaks, by Lillie E. Kelley, $1.00.

Faith Palmer at Fortney Hall, by Lillie E. Kelley, $1.00.

Faith Palmer in Washington, by Lillie E. Kelley, $1.00.

Baseball and Football Stories

Denforth Plays the Game, by Ralph H. Barbour, $1.25. Baseball and football and interesting happenings in a boy's life at school make this book one of the best from this much-loved author's pen.

The Battle of Baseball, by C. H. Caudy, $1.50. A baseball book for "fans" of every age.

Pitching in a Pinch, by Christy Matheson, $1.25. A gripping story of the Big League, told by "Matty," the star pitcher of the New York Giants.

School and College Stories For Boys

The School Days of Elliott Gray, by Colton Hayward, $0.50. An American school story that makes one confident of the citizens of tomorrow. The workmanship is masterly and it presents ideas in a way that must fascinate boys.

Herd of St. Timothy, by A. S. Pier, $1.50. The hero, Harry Harding, shows how fair play counts for more in life than anything else.

The Junior of St. Timothy, by A. S. Pier, $1.50. A well-written story of school life, with a strong and agreeable absence of slang.

Batter-Up, by William Hawley, $1.25. A story of a school, a preparatory school, in the scene of this story, Chester Hall loses his place on the team, and is forced to leave because he appears to be afraid of a rival pitcher.

The West Point Series, by Capt. Paul R. Nelson, U. S. A., $1.50 each. Tells how Douglas Alwell, a young soldier in the regular army, won his way to West Point, and how he passed through four years of successful years at the famous academy, and went into active army service.

Winning His Way to West Point, by Paul R. Nelson, U. S. A., $1.50.

A West Point Yearling, by Paul R. Nelson, U. S. A., $1.50.

A West Point Lieutenant, by Paul R. Nelson, U. S. A., $1.50.

The Army Boy Series, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25 each. The most exciting adventure stories for boys ever published. The stories involve two boys who begin at the bottom and work their way to the top in the American army.

An Army Boy in the Philippines, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

An Army Boy in Mexico, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

An Army Boy in Alaska, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

The Story of a Soldier, by Capt. C. E. Kilbourne, U. S. A., $1.25.

Marvels of Science

The Stars and Their Mysteries, by Charles R. Gibson, $1.00. An interestingly written account of the wonders of astronomy, told in simple language.

Harpers' Beginning Electricity, by D. C. Shaffer, $1.00. An introduction to electricity, written simply to show boys how the wonderful forces may be looked upon as a friend, and even a playmate. It has been carefully planned to avoid the difficulties so often met with in scientific books for young readers.

The Book of Wireless, by A. Frederick Collins, $1.00. This book is the only satisfactory one for the amateur wireless operator, giving just the advice necessary for his use. Profusely illustrated with diagrams and line cuts drawn to measure by the author, who is a well-known expert in this special field.

The Book of Stars, by A. Frederick Collins, $1.00. Showing the boy or girl how to become familiar with the sun, moon and stars without any previous knowledge of the heavenly bodies.

With the Men Who Do Things, by A. R. Read, $1.50. The adventures of two young lads who spend a summer vacation seeing the engineering wonders of New York. We find them with the iron workers far above the city, with foundation builders deep under ground, with the "sand hog" driving tunnels under water through quicksand, and in a score of other novel situations.

Harpers' Wireless Book, by A. H. Verill, $1.00. Mysterious as wireless may seem, yet in reality it is a very simple matter, and is explained, and so readily understood that boys can build, and have built, and equipped, serviceable wireless stations.

The Story of Iron, by Elizabeth L. Samuel, $0.75.

The Story of Leather, by Sara W. Bassett, $0.75.

Nature Stories

Bird Neighbors, by Betje Claassen, $2.00. An introduction to the birds commonly to be met with. Includes 45 color plates.

Squirrels and Other Fur-Bearers, by John Burroughs, $1.00. Contents: Squirrels, The Chipmunk, The Woodchuck, The Rabbit and The Hare, The Muskrat, The Skunk and the Fox.

Bird Life, by Frank M. Chapman, $2.00. A guide to the study of our common birds. With 75 full-page colored plates and numerous text drawings.

Our Insect Friends and Foes: How to Collect, Preserve and Study Them, by Belle S. Craig, $1.75. Describes for young people the common insects found in the country, and are suitable for children between the ages of eight and thirteen.

Young Heroes of the American Navy, by Com. Geo. D. Parker, U. S. N., $1.00. A story of the Navy, and the author, who was a naval officer, and the author, who was a naval officer, and the author, who was a naval officer.

Water Birds, by Chester A. Reed, $1.00. Includes all of the water birds, game birds, and birds of prey that are found in the United States.

Flower Guide, by Chester A. Reed, $1.00. A guide to the common wild flowers found in the Eastern and Middle States.

For Mother to Read To the Children

The Sleepy Time Story Book, by Ruth O. Dyer, $1.00. The simple nature of this attractive book is the answer to the child's plea for a bedtime story. Interesting tales of ogress, dark woods, and savage beasts to excite the childish imagination.

The Art of the Story Teller, by Marie Shedlock, $1.50. In this volume the author has put together such observations on story telling as can be put in words. Teachers, mothers and social workers will find this book especially attractive in their work with children.

Our Baby Day by Day, by Ella D. Lee, $0.50. A popular priced baby's biography—one which will enable every young mother in the land to keep a record of the first doings of her darling baby. Specially designed to record the chief events of Baby's life, and with appropriate and beautiful illustrations in color on every page.

The Story Teller for Little Children, by Maud Lindsay, $1.00. When this book was in preparation Miss Poulsson, the noted author of "Finger Plays," etc., wrote to Miss Lindsay: "I love your poetic and imaginative stories as very much that I am more than glad to know that you have written some of the fanciful kind, as you call it."

What Shall We Read to the Children? by Clara W. Hunt, $1.00. This is a wise, helpful book of advice to parents and teachers, as to what and how to read to children before they are able to read to themselves. One by one the author takes up the various branches of reading.

The Bed Time Story Books, $0.50 each. The following titles:

The Adventures of Sammy Joy, by Frank Armstrong, $0.50.

The Adventures of Chatterer, by Frank Armstrong, $0.50.

The Adventures of Jerry Muskrat, by Frank Armstrong, $0.50.

The Adventures of Mr. Mocker, by Frank Armstrong, $0.50.

The Adventures of Uncle Billy Pansum, by Frank Armstrong, $0.50.

The Adventures of Grandfather Frog, by Frank Armstrong, $0.50.

The Adventures of Peter Cottontail, by Frank Armstrong, $0.50.

The Adventures of Reddy Fox, by Frank Armstrong, $0.50.

The Adventures of Johnny Chuck, by Frank Armstrong, $0.50.

The Adventures of Danny Meadow Mouse, by Frank Armstrong, $0.50.

Easy Reading for All

The Little People's Series, $0.50 each, including the following:

Deerin, Dot and the Dog, by Julie M. Lippman.

Sweet Pea's, by Julie M. Lippman.

Dolly's Delays, by Alice George.

A Rose of Holly Court, by Elizabeth L. Samuel.

His Lordship's Pupper, by Theodore C. Elmali.

The Walcott Twins, by Lucile Lovell.

The Baby Animal Books, by C. E. Kilbourne, $0.50 each. Each book tells with much humor the adventures of a baby animal. They are printed in large type, with a profusion of illustrations, many of them being done in color.

Baby Elephant and the Zoo Man, by C. E. Kilbourne, $0.50.

Baby Lion and the Hump-Head Animal, by C. E. Kilbourne, $0.50.

Baby Monkey and the Wily Wolf, by C. E. Kilbourne, $0.50.

Baby Polar Bear and the Walrus, by C. E. Kilbourne, $0.50.

Baby Ostrich and Mr. Windy Owl, by C. E. Kilbourne, $0.50.

Baby Zebra and the Friendly Rhinoceros, by C. E. Kilbourne, $0.50.

Jolly Mother Goose Annual, $4 full